RECORD RUN BY G. T. RAILWAY

The following is taken from the Portland Argus of recent date and should prove interesting reading for local railroaders although the "old timers" are probably familiar with the story.

While the time between the two points would not be remarkable at this time, it should be remembered that the roadbed and equipment in 1858 were scarcely what they are to-day.

Fifty Miles an Hour

Gen. Sir W. F. Williams, the hero of Kars, on a visit to Canada, was desirous of reaching Portland on Saturday evening. He came from Quebec to Island Pond by the regular train at 4 o'clock p. m., on Saturday. The Grand Trunk railway company requested S. T. Corser, Esq., the superintendent of the Portland section, to give him an express train to Portland, which order was promptly executed.

Mr. Warren Noyes of Island Pond, one of the employes of the Grand Trunk railway company, took charge of the engine "Berlin" as driver and left Island Pond at 4:31 p. m. with an extra train and reached Gorham, 58 miles, in a trifle over one hour. The engine "Eliphalet Greeley," in charge of Mr. Grant, then took the train and reached Portland station at 7:35 p. m., or in 3 hours, 22 minutes, from station to station, a distance of 150 miles, including all stoppages. The train stopped at South Paris and Danville Junction, and twice this side of Danville, where bridges were undergoing repairs. The actual running time from Island Pond to Portland did not exceed 3 hours.

Mr. Corser, the Napoleon of the track, quietly sat in his office at Portland and received the dispatches by telegraph as the train came up to time at each station, and so exactly were his orders obeyed that not a single failure of a second's time was noticeable. Not the slightest accident or mishap of any kind occurred, and the general was so delighted with the conduct of the engine drivers, Noyes and Grant, that he handed each one a sovereign, a token of regard, as unexpected to them as it was creditable to his sense of duty. The night was dark and tempestuous, the rain falling in torrents all the way. This made the duty of the engine drivers all the more trying and difficult.

We do not recollect a circumstance on record where a better achievement than this has been accomplished on any railroads taking into account the dangers of night traveling in the face of a driving storm.

Auto Turns Over

A Buick touring car owned by Fred Hamblett, proprietor of the Clyde River Hotel, West Charleston, turned turtle in front of the residence of Elmer Allen, late Wednesday night. From what can be learned, it is understood that the machine was going at a rapid rate and tried to pass another car, when it struck a culvert. The machine was badly wrecked, but the occupants miraculously escaped with minor injuries.

A PERFECT CATHARTIC

There is sure and wholesome action in every dose of Foley Cathartic Tablets. They cleanse with never a gripe or pain. P. A. Morgan, Gore, Ga., writes: "I lately had occasion to use a liver medicine, and took Foley Cathartic Tablets. They thoroughly cleansed my system, and I felt like a new man—light and free." Chronic cases of constipation find them invaluable. Stout people are relieved of that bloated, congested feeling, so uncomfortable especially in hot weather. They keep your liver busy. For sale by John W. Thurston.

CONGOS HOLD ANNUAL PICNIC

The Congregational Church Sunday School had an ideal day for their picnic, July 16, which was held in Warner's Grove. Almost all known conveyances,—ancient and modern—were utilized in getting one hundred "picnickers" to the grove. After dinner the sports began with a fast and exciting ball game between the Orphans and Wanderers with a lineup as follows:

Orphans	Wanderers
C. Mosher, c	G. N. Dale, c
C. Stevens, p	P. Bartlett, p
R. Skinner, 1b	G. Emery, 1b
R. Lawton, 2b	W. F. Morong, 2b
C. J. Earl, 3b	Capt. Gra'm, 3b
C. Foster, ss	A. W. Bosworth, ss

Umpire, Miss Amy Edmonds; Scorer, Mrs. C. J. Earl. The score was: Orphans, 9; Wanderers, 5.

The Wanderers say that the umpiring was ragged, decisions being loud but doubtful, and that the scorer was "rattled". Owing to the fact that most of the players had overworked in disposing of a bountiful dinner, the game had to be called off in the middle of the third inning to avoid sending for the undertaker. After the ball game a schedule of sports was run off in charge of W. F. Morong, in which both young and old enthusiastically contested for the many useful and valuable trophies offered. Following is a list of the successful victims:

Primary Race—
1st prize, Beatrice Harris;
2nd prize, Celia Perry.

Race for boys under 12—
1st prize, Doryl Waterman;
2nd prize, Clarence Corlis.

Race for girls under 12—
1st prize, Ida Wright;
2nd prize, Doris Foster.

Young ladies' race—
1st prize, Louise Lawton;
2nd prize, Kathleen Foster.

Men's Race—
1st prize, G. N. Dale;
2nd prize, C. Foster.

Shoe Race—
1st prize, Clifford Stevens;
2nd prize, Robt. C. Lawton.

Rolling Race—
1st prize, Curtis Mosher;
2nd prize, Clifford Stevens.

Spoon Contest—
1st prize, Gerald Emery;
2nd prize, Robert Lawton.

Soda Cracker Race—
1st prize, Gerald Emery;
2nd prize, Curtis Mosher.
